"There aren't a lot of us. Only about 400 active license holders in California out of approximately 7,000 nationwide. About ten new apprentices start every year in California. About the same number of falconers drop out of the sport. To become a falconer you must prove to your state and to one general or master falconer, that you have the book knowledge, facilities, equipment and ambition to become a falconer. ... The book knowledge is tested in the form of your state's falconry examination and is the first and most difficult 'gate' you must pass through to become a falconer. ... The test is composed of about fifty to fifty-five questions about falconry, natural history of the birds of falconry, equipment, facilities, laws and regulations, and so on. ... This guide asks questions in the same way the states ask test questions."--P. [2]

In a small village in medieval England, a young homeless girl acquires a home and a new career when she becomes the apprentice to a sharp-tempered midwife.

Long the sport of kings, falconry has been practiced since antiquity, though there have been periods when the sport has fallen almost into oblivion. Today, there is a resurgence of interest in falconry which, far from being a pastime for the privileged has come now within the reach of most enthusiasts. This major work is totally new in writing, sketches and paintings. It brings together the contemporary summation of what the sport is about, where it has been and where it is going. The treatise will serve the non-initiated admirably and stimulate the experienced. The marvellous colour paintings represent the intuitive understanding of this unusual artist, Frank L Beebe.
