The key to creating a truly effective practice team begins with the realization that the best teams are built, not hired. Dentists must hire people with the right capabilities and then lead them. Set the right performance targets, design systems to meet those targets with simple, repeatable, step-by-step protocols, and provide excellent training on the systems.

Leading the practice team to success | Dental Economics

Dental teams can't 'mind-read' their employers. Without carefully outlined boundaries of what the employer expects, the team members individually set their own boundaries.
