Don't cry for me, Argentina
The truth is, I never left you
All through my wild days, my mad existence
I kept my promise. Don't keep your distance
Have I said too much? There's nothing more
I can think of to say to you
But all you have to do is look at me to know
That every word is true

Excerpt: "Help!" is a song by The Beatles that served as the title song for both the 1965 film and its soundtrack album. It was also released as a single, and was number one for three weeks in both the United States and the United Kingdom. "Help!" was written by John Lennon, but credited (as were all Beatles songs written by either person) to Lennon/McCartney. The title was "out of desperation." In 2004, "Help!" was ranked number 29 on Rolling Stones list of "The 500 Greatest Songs of All Time." The...

It is February 1947 in post-war London when four-year-old Trish Smithers and her younger sister, Debbie, are abandoned by their mother at an orphanage. After they are eventually adopted by an Anglican minister and his wife, the sisters lead a sheltered life in a quaint country village—until tragedy strikes again. As Trish struggles to overcome life ' s hurdles, she must balance her protective nature for her younger sister with their need for a secure future. Her relationship with her loving mentor—Aunt Tina, the village postmistress—is invaluable as she encounters life's harshest lessons. As Trish continues on her coming-of-age journey into womanhood, she experiences a close call with the underworld through an unfortunate love choice. While living alone in London as a young, na í ve widow, Trish transitions into a confident and vivacious lawyer who learns how to succeed in a man ' s world. But will she find a way to persevere through the tough times to smash the glass ceiling and ultimately influence history? Don ' t Cry for Me, Aunt Tina is the tale of an orphan ' s coming-of-age journey as she overcomes several hurdles to transform into a talented attorney who must claw her way to the top.
