Abstract. Narrative methodologies in applied linguistics have gained legitimacy and significant visibility in recent decades, particularly in areas such as language teaching and learning (Barkhuizen, Benson & Chik, 2014) and sociolinguistics (De Fina & Georgakopoulou, 2015). This workshop begins by providing a broad overview of narrative research in applied linguistics, focusing particularly on the types of data collected and methods of analysis.

Applied linguistics takes the results of those findings and "applies" them to other areas. Linguistic research is commonly applied to areas such as language education, lexicography, translation, language planning, which involves governmental policy implementation related to language use, and natural language processing.
